

Update regarding November 9, 2012 press release: the global equity exchange traded funds have been sold and replaced with global equities under active management. The change in asset allocation did not result in any change in the portion of the Company's total assets managed by each of Jarislowsky Fraser Limited and ValueInvest Asset Management S.A.